Number of trade credits to be credited to the National Agent ("the facility"):

The national agent acknowledges that this facility will be used for the purpose of providing facilities for members of the trade exchange, and for establishing the country exchange referred to in the relative National Agency Agreement. In the event of any breach of this use occurring, any or all of the following conditions may apply at the discretion of the trade exchange. The national agent also agrees and acknowledges that in the event of the national agent leaving the trade exchange for any reason whatsoever any or all of the following conditions may apply at the discretion of the trade exchange.

1. That part of the facility not used for the provision of members' facilities or used for establishing the Country exchange shall be repayable immediately in trade credits;
2. Any trade credit balance in the national agent's account may be utilised for the purpose of repaying the facility;
3. In the event of all or part of the facility being unpaid at the expiry of 30 days from the date the national agent ceases to be a national agent of the trade exchange then the balance outstanding shall thereupon be a debt payable by the national agent to Empire Trade Administration Pty Ltd in Australian dollars at the recognised rate of exchange on the day of repayment. This condition is not withstanding of any relevant clause, clauses or special conditions of the National Agency Agreement.
4. In the event of the trade credit balance in the national agent's account falling into a negative amount then the national agent shall immediately upon request repay such negative amount together with an administration fee to be determined by Empire Trade Administration and in the event that such negative amount is not restored to credit within 7 days of such request then the National Agent shall be liable to have their National Agency Agreement terminated and the negative balance (and the administration fee) shall be payable in a like manner to the provisions of paragraph 4 above. This provision will apply during the period of the agency agreement as well as after termination.
