

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT Empire Trade / ETX International Staff and Associates

As an associate or staff member of the ETX International ("the Exchange"), I understand that under the Privacy Act, I am required by law to maintain confidentiality of staff and member personal information. I also understand that under no circumstances are personal details of members or employees to be given to unauthorized persons without the prior written consent of the Regional Agent or my direct Manager. This includes personal and home phone numbers and addresses. If the matter is of an urgent nature I understand that I should take the caller's name and phone number and contact the member or employees concerned and pass on these details.

I understand that organisation-trading details are confidential and should not be discussed with members, contractors or anyone outside the organisation premises at any time. I agree that I will abide by this agreement and not divulge or discuss the business of the Exchange during my employment or association, or after I have ceased employment or association, with the Exchange.

Organisation-trading information can be defined as any conversation both written and verbal and/or any action undertaken during my hours of work on behalf of the Exchange that has an employee of the Exchange interacting with another employee, member, agent or external party who is dealing with the Exchange on any level.

By signing this document I am taking responsibility and declaring that I have read and understood this document thoroughly and will endeavor to maintain the highest level of privacy in regards to organisation-trading of the barter exchange, ETX International.
